Gilmartin to Present the League's Prosperity Agenda to The Wolverine Caucus

- WHO: *Michigan Municipal League Executive Director and CEO Dan Gilmartin
*The Wolverine Caucus, made up of University of Michigan alumni and friends who work in and around the state Capitol
- WHAT: A presentation of the League's Prosperity Agenda to the Wolverine Caucus
- WHEN: 11 a.m., Thursday, June 11, 2009
- WHERE: Michigan Municipal League Capital Office, 208 N. Capitol Ave., 1st Floor, Lansing
- DETAILS: Restoring prosperity to Michigan requires new strategies that make local communities places where young, college educated and creative people want to live, work and play. Gilmartin will present the League's Prosperity Agenda, a series of public policies that the state must pursue to restore prosperity to Michigan. The Prosperity Agenda includes government reforms that can save money and bold initiatives to transform Michigan cities into places where high-income workers and their employers want to be. Cities in other states that have adopted these policies are creating thousands of jobs and generating billions of dollars in new investments.
