Join us March 25 – 27 in Seattle, Washington!

Registration Opens Nov. 1

Convened annually, the Main Street Now Conference showcases implementable best practices, time-tested solutions, and innovative ideas from our national network of practitioners, as well as those in adjacent fields who share the goal of creating economic and social prosperity in downtowns and neighborhood commercial districts.

New this year, the National Main Street Center (NMSC) to local elected officials and senior local government staff from Main Street America communities and districts.

The conference will offer local leaders the opportunity to network with peers from across the country, partake in professional development, discuss common challenges and collaborate on solutions, and explore the beautiful sights of Seattle, Wash.

“Main Street and local municipalities are natural partners. Working together, we are a powerful force in communities, helping to bring new economic activity and opportunity downtown, enhance quality of life, and engage local citizens in the revitalization process.”

*Patrice Frey,
President & CEO, NMSC*
