

---

Know What Your Officers Know!

1. What determines an emergency and who authorizes a police officer to respond in an emergency fashion as outlined by law?
2. According to the Michigan Vehicle Code, when is an emergency vehicle exempt from speed limitations?
3. When is a police officer exempt from activating a siren in an emergency and what standard of care must they meet if a siren is not used?
4. When can an emergency vehicle disregard a red light or stop sign?
5. What are the lawful reasons to enter a residence?
6. What are exigent circumstances in a 4th Amendment context and give examples?
7. What is curtilage and what privacy rights does a person have within it?
8. Under 4th Amendment, how much force can an officer use to accomplish an arrest?
9. Can a citizen resist an unlawful arrest or invasion of constitutionally protected areas by police?
10. Define active resistance?
11. If an officer stopped, searched, handcuffed and detained a person in a patrol vehicle, is the next logical step to take them to jail?
12. What factors must be present before an officer initiates a foot pursuit and apprehends a subject?
13. List four issues officers should consider before initiating, joining or continuing a foot pursuit.
14. Under the Michigan Mental Health Code, when does a person require treatment?
15. When must a police officer take a “person requiring treatment” into custody and transport them to a hospital?
16. What are the restrictions on the use of force when taking a “person requiring treatment” in to custody?
17. When was the last time you read a criminal justice related professional journal, newsletter, magazine or article?
18. List the different ways you receive training.
19. What is Below 100?
20. What are the five tenets of Below 100?